November 2025

JAL Newsletter

Dear Partners and Friends,

As we wrap up the third quarter of 2025, we're glad to share some highlights from across the JAL portfolio.
It's been a busy few months, with new investments, product launches, and recognition for several of our companies. Each update below reflects the steady progress and hard work of the founders we're proud to support.

Portfolio and Fund Updates

JAL Ventures Invests in Vendict's $10M Series A Round

We're pleased to announce JAL Ventures' investment in Vendict's $10 million Series A, led by Moneta VC with participation from NFX, Cardumen Capital, and Disruptive AI.

Vendict develops an AI-based compliance automation platform that helps enterprises efficiently manage and respond to security questionnaires, RFPs, and audit requests. By applying proprietary large language models trained on company data, Vendict enables accurate, audit-ready responses in minutes—saving time and accelerating sales cycles.

The company is rapidly gaining traction with global customers and emerging as a leader in AI-driven governance and compliance. We're proud to support founders Udi Cohen and Michael Keslassy in their continued growth.
